Whether you are a business or an individual, litigation can be extremely stressful. My clients know I'm in their corner from day one: learning their business, thinking ahead, and never treating their problem as routine.

Grace Miller helps Texas-based businesses with national problems and national businesses with Texas-based problems both inside and outside the courtroom. She represents plaintiffs and defendants in high-stakes disputes across industries including software, FinTech, real estate, and healthcare.

Grace handles a broad range of commercial and consumer matters, including breach of contract, deceptive trade practices, and non-compete and trade secret disputes. From initial litigation assessment through trial and appeal, she has represented clients in state and federal courts and in arbitration across the country.

Grace approaches every matter with a practical mindset: litigation is a means to an end, not an end in itself. She works to understand each client's goals from the outset, anticipates opposing counsel's next move, and looks for creative solutions — without losing sight of what it takes to successfully take a case to trial.

OUTSIDE OF WORK

Grace is an active member of Eastside Community Church. She also enjoys listening to audiobooks, baking sourdough, and hanging out with her pug sidekick, Clark.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

- Litigation, Disputes, Appeals

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Won multi-million dollar defense verdict for Software as a Service company after a 6-week jury trial, defeating claims for breach of contract.
- On appeal, secured order granting special appearance, dismissing personal injury claims against religious governing body for lack of personal jurisdiction.

- Secured summary judgment for general partner in putative class action, defeating consumer claims relating to Deceptive Trade Practices Act violations and aiding and abetting a breach of fiduciary duty.
- Defended FinTech lender against a substantial number of consumer claims in both state and federal court and in arbitration.
