Phil Hecker is an associate in our transactional department, where he assists clients with a wide variety of real estate transactions, including purchasing, selling, leasing, and financing real property. Phil has worked on significant legal matters, including multimillion-dollar deals and the sale of a multi-family housing portfolio containing 25 apartment complexes. Clients appreciate his knowledge, attention to detail, and determination to achieve the best possible outcomes in every transaction.

OUTSIDE OF WORK

Phil enjoys spending time with his wife and son, and watching baseball and football.
