

Carrington Coleman Earns 2024 Chambers USA Recognition

June 07, 2024

Chambers and Partners ranks Carrington Coleman in Litigation: General Commercial and four partners in its 2024 Chambers USA guide.

Selection to the highly respected legal guide is based on thousands of in-depth attorney and client interviews to identify lawyers who demonstrate top technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commitment, and other key qualities.

“They are very good lawyers and legal drafters who understand how to navigate the litigation process and put the client in the best position for a favorable outcome”, one interviewee commented.

In addition to the firm's ranking, Managing Partner Monica Latin and Head of Litigation, Alex More earned individual recognition for their litigation work, with Cathy Altman and Lance Currie receiving individual recognition for their construction work.

The Chambers USA guide is produced by London-based Chambers and Partners and is respected worldwide for its thorough guides to the legal profession.

Related Services

1. Litigation and Disputes