

Estate Planning Attorney Ashley McMillan Joins Carrington Coleman

---

January 28, 2020

---

(Last updated January 28, 2020)

Carrington Coleman welcomes estate and tax planning attorney Ashley McMillan as Of Counsel.

Her comprehensive practice involves providing estate plans including wills and trusts, as well as probate, estate administration, wealth management, asset protection and business succession plans tailored to the individual needs of clients.

“Ashley brings extensive experience in all areas of estate planning and administration,” said Carrington Coleman Managing Partner Bruce Collins. “Her expertise will both complement and continue to elevate the work of this group, to the benefit of our clients.”

To learn more about Ms. McMillan, visit her bio.

A former corporate counsel for non-profit associations and a trained mediator, her practice also involves corporate formation and transactions. She is a member of the Dallas Bar Association’s Estate Planning and Probate Section and served as the 2013-15 co-chair of the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers’ Elder Law Committee.

She earned her law degree in 2008 from Texas Tech University School of Law. While in law school she was a member of the Craven National Moot Court Team and a member of the Board of Barristers. A graduate of Ursuline Academy of Dallas, she earned bachelor of arts degrees in political science and psychology in 2005 from Wake Forest University.