

Firm Partner and Practice Group Leader Andrea Perez in “Enhancing Your Collection’s Potential” Panel Discussion

April 04, 2024

Overview: In celebration of Dallas Art Fair this week, Firm Art Practice Group Leader Andrea Perez, participated in a panel discussion at Park House last night, focusing on the crucial role of fine art appraisal in insuring artworks, obtaining fiscal benefits, and using art as loan collateral. She and Joe Cuff from Bank of America offered insights into the safeguarding and financial aspects of an art collection. Additionally, Muriel Quancard and Louky Keijsers Koning, certified members of the Appraisers Association of America (AAA), explained the intricate process of art appraisal. The discussion catered to both established collectors and those newly embarking on their art collection journey.

Related Services

1. Art Law