

Monica Latin Adds 'Best Lawyer Hall of Fame' to Her Professional Accolades

February 28, 2022

Congratulations to Carrington Coleman managing partner Monica Latin for her selection to the inaugural class of D Magazine's Best Lawyers Hall of Fame based on her Business/Commercial Litigation work.

To be considered for the Hall of Fame, an attorney must have been named to the annual peer-selected Best Lawyers in Dallas listing a minimum of 15 times. Only 50 attorneys were selected to the 2022 class, which will be featured in the March edition of D Magazine.

"Monica has always been a guiding force for her clients and everyone in our firm, and one of the most highly regarded attorneys in Dallas. Now we can add 'Hall of Famer' to her many distinctions," says Executive Committee member Mike Birrer.

Ms. Latin's practice focuses on a broad range of commercial and employment litigation, including injunctions, trials, arbitrations, and appeals. She is a frequent lecturer on litigation issues and is a longtime leader in the litigation section of the American Bar Association. Her work has led to multiple honors and recognitions, including Chambers USA; Texas Super Lawyers' Top 100 Attorneys in Texas, Top 50 Women Lawyers, and Top 100 Attorneys in Dallas/Fort Worth; Best Lawyers in America; Dallas Top Women in Legal from the National Diversity Council; and D CEO's Dallas 500.
