

Monica Latin Earns Trio Of Top Honors From Texas Super Lawyers

September 22, 2021

For a second consecutive year, Carrington Coleman managing partner Monica Latin has earned a trio of special recognitions from Texas Super Lawyers, the preeminent guide to the state's legal community.

Honored among the Top 100 Attorneys in Texas regardless of practice focus or office location, she is also named among the Top 50 Women lawyers in the state and the Top 100 Attorneys in Dallas/Fort Worth.

In addition to these honors, a total of 14 firm attorneys earned repeat recognition across a total of nine practice areas in the 2021 edition of Texas Super Lawyers. Attorneys are selected through a rigorous process, with the final listing honoring no more than 5 percent of the state's lawyers.

Join us in congratulating these outstanding attorneys:

Cathy Altman – Selected among the state's top Construction Litigation attorneys since 2014

Mike Birrer – Employee Benefits, 2020

Lyndon Bittle – Insurance Coverage, 2012

Neil Burger – Business Litigation, 2013

Ken Carroll – Appellate, 2011

Bruce W. Collins – Business Litigation, 2003

David G. Drumm – Real Estate, 2020

Carmen E. Eiker – Family Law, 2013

Kelli M. Hinson – Business Litigation, 2012

Jason Katz – Business Litigation, 2019

Monica Latin — Business litigation, 2003

Christie A. Newkirk – Employment & Labor, 2005

Brian Shaw – Business Litigation, 2021

Michael Sutherland – Business Bankruptcy, 2004

Published annually by Thomson Reuters, the full 2021 Texas Super Lawyers listing will appear in Texas Monthly and Super Lawyers magazines and can be found online at <http://www.superlawyers.com>.

